

Phonic Results

All children within Year 1, across the country, are tested on their phonic knowledge. The children receive either a pass or fail for the “expected standard”; no “high standard” can be awarded. The children who do not meet the pass mark are retested within Year 2.

Currently no national averages have been released for the phonic results, so last year’s national average has been used for comparison.

